North Texas STORM SC Parents Code of Conduct Agreement

- It is important that the parents of our team conduct themselves in a manner that represents the team, coaching staff, and the North Texas STORM SC Club in a positive way.
- Sideline behavior is a major issue. Parents should encourage good sportsmanship and function as a good role model for your player. All parents are required to follow the rules set forth by the coaching staff and team management at all practices, games, and team functions.
- Parents shall not taunt or ridicule game officials or the opposing teams.
- Parents shall not cross the sideline at any time, including injury, unless called by the coaching staff.
- Playing time is always an issue. The coach makes all decisions regarding the amount of playtime for each player. There is no guaranteed playtime for any individual player. Parents are not to confront coaching staff before, during, or after games. Any issues should be addressed by setting an agreed-to time with your team's coach or manager.
- Parents shall not coach the players from the sideline. This causes confusion for the players between parent instructions and coach's instructions. The North Texas Storm SC programs are based on hard, strong, physical, and mental play. The players need to make their own decisions on the field based on instructions from only their coach.
